A Report of young people being NEETs

Introduction

The increasing number of adolescents are being NEETs instead of finding themselves recently. Majority of teenagers prefer spending time at home playing video games or surfing internet. It is believed that there are few reasons that can explain why the number of NEETs in Hong Kong is rising. In the following paragraphs, it will explain the few reasons and some suggestions of this widespread phenomenon.

The reasons why the number of NEETs in Hong Kong is rising.

Primarily, it is believed that there are enriching support to Hong Kong teenagers recently. According to a survey from 'Young Post', there are half quarter of parents in Hong Kong provide almost $2500 HKD allowance to their children per week, 80 percent of teenagers are able to spend their allowance on purchasing things such as latest electronic products. Parents are not only satisfy their children's shopping desires, but also provide a comfortable living environment. Nowadays, majority of Hong Kong families have a maid in their house, that in turn, adolescents can hardly cultivate their responsibility of contributing to their family. In that way, NEETs would prefer lying at home and having entertainment instead of having education, employment or training. due to these NEETs have less financial burden.

Furthermore, not only physical object led young people become NEETs, but also mental satisfaction is a essential reason. Nowadays, there are diverse pressure that burden teens' mental health. While teenagers have to face pressure from different areas, some of them would prefer to replace work by entertaining life style. For ^{give examples} ~~instead~~, peer pressure, academic obstacle, ^{or} lack of job opportunities. On the contrary, ^{these can} an entertaining life style such as spending time at (doodscrolling), surfing interest, ^{bring} relax and ^{bring} stress-free to majority of ^{young} city dwellers. According to a renowned survey from Hong Kong University, ^{shows} that 60 percent of citizens prefer using smartphone in their ^{spare} past time, since they would like to ^{avoidance} ~~avoid~~ the burden in the reality. Meanwhile, ^{teens} would like to spend time on entertainment instead of working. Beside, there are enriching genre of entertainment recently, gamers can hardly find ^{so} ~~terried~~ in those platform. For examples, watching movies and animations, playing video games etc. Therefore, young people prefer being NEETs due to their psychologically satisfaction. ^{even} (some may feel satisfy when completed the game)

Suggestion that can be done to help NEETs: it is believed that First of all, ⁱⁿ regards the ^{primary} reason, parents should stop over-spoiling to their children. As ⁱⁿ majority of adolescents in Hong Kong are over relying on their parents, it ^{has} ~~has~~ limits teens' personal growth. To tackle with this vital issue, parents should cultivate their children's responsibility and independence. For example, parents could allocate some housework to teens. According to a study, toddlers in 2 to 3 years old can be ^{more} ~~more~~ effective to learn responsibility. In that way, it is believed that while adolescents having a ^{personal} education, they could feel responsible on their future, meanwhile, they will prefer to studying or working instead of being NEETs. ^{poor ppl can also benefit}

Besides, ^{the} government should also offer more job opportunity to fresh grad. As majority of Hong Kong fresh grad might ^{be confused} ~~be confused~~ with the career in the future, some of them may feel ^{anxiety} ~~anxiety~~ and embarrassing with finding jobs. Therefore, government should launch ^{some} ~~some~~ career talks that helps adolescents know more about different job. Moreover, government should also offer some internship for fresh grad. It is believed that while having different genre of internship could help teens better understand which type of job are the best, and ^{teens' job} increase (experience) in their CV. In that way, adolescents can gain ^{diverse} experience and be easier on applying a job.

Conclusion :

To sum up, there are increasing numbers of adolescents being NEETs, in this report ^{it shows} that the main reasons are come from parents and NEETs' thought. However, there are also two ^{some} suggestion that can alleviate ^{with} this widespread issue.
